O, I remember well the day,
The like a dream just past away,
When my first hat was bought,
I laid it on the floor, and stood
With folded arms, in pemposa mood,
Wrept up in glorious thought. As proud as any lord was I, And thought myself full fire feet high And thought myself full five feet and Toy tall to play with toys.
Awhile I stood to spe the man,
Than antiched my hat off I ran,
To show it to the boys.

Said I, "unine's newest, and of course For wearing can be note the worse, And most be best of all; Just see the crown, how high it is, Nose has a higher crown than this; Take care i don't let it full."
